Title: Who Is This? (Part 3)

Text: Luke 8:40–56 (ESV)

⁴⁰ Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. ⁴¹ And there came a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at Jesus' feet, he implored him to come to his house, ⁴² for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying.

As Jesus went, the people pressed around him. ⁴³ And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, and though she had spent all her living on physicians, she could not be healed by anyone. ⁴⁴ She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment, and immediately her discharge of blood ceased. ⁴⁵ And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround you and are pressing in on you!" ⁴⁶ But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, for I perceive that power has gone out from me." ⁴⁷ And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. ⁴⁸ And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace."

⁴⁹ While he was still speaking, someone from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." ⁵⁰ But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she will be well." ⁵¹ And when he came to the house, he allowed no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child. ⁵² And all were weeping and mourning for her, but he said, "Do not weep, for she is not dead but sleeping." ⁵³ And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. ⁵⁴ But taking her by the hand he called, saying, "Child, arise." ⁵⁵ And her spirit returned, and she got up at once. And he directed that something should be given her to eat. ⁵⁶ And her parents were amazed, but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Introduction: This passage concludes a lengthy section that began in 8:22. This large section records four miracles so striking that they draw us to ask and answer, Who is this? (8:25). Three common themes appear in all four of these stories and are very apparent in the final two that we will consider today. First, the stories display Jesus' use of divine power. Only God can exercise authority over nature, demons, disease, and death. Second, at the center of each story we find people in desperate, hopeless straits until they encounter Jesus. Finally, the central point of each story is faith: you should believe/trust Jesus.

I. The stories retold: Jesus exercised authority over disease and death.

The text contains two stories of desperation, one "sandwiched" within the other.

- A. Jesus' confrontation with death begins. 40-42a
- B. Jesus' confrontation disease. 42b-48
- C. Jesus' confrontation with death concludes. 49-56

II. Principle: You should trust Jesus because he is Lord of all.

III. Implications:

- A. Jesus offers hope in your hopeless situation . . .
- B. because he has the power to do what no one else can do for you . . .
- C. and all he requires is that you trust him.
